GRADUATE GLOBAL EXCHANGE PROGRAM (GGEP)

The School of Business and Economics (SBE) at the Universiti Putra Malaysia (UPM) is a renowned institution in Southeast Asia, offering an exceptional education in business and economics. With a focus on practical learning, innovative research, and international collaboration, SBE prepares students for a globally-oriented career in these fields. The Graduate Global Exchange Program (GGEP), launched in December 2024, allows graduate students from partner universities worldwide to study at UPM for a trimester, selecting from a broad range of business and economics courses.

Designed to enhance academic perspectives and global employability, the GGEP offers students the chance to engage with UPM's distinguished school and peers, while experiencing Malaysia's rich cultural diversity. Participants can choose three to four courses per trimester, tailoring their studies to their academic goals, and benefit from UPM's vibrant campus life. The program is open to international students, offering a unique opportunity to build international networks and gain invaluable cross-cultural experience in preparation for the global workforce.
